A graduate of Dartmouth College and Emory Medical School, Dr. Gregory Smith of Athens Gastroenterology Center is a double board certified physician in Internal Medicine and Gastroenterology. Trained at hospitals affiliated with Harvard University in Massachusetts, Dr. Smith now specializes in gastrointestinal and hepatology disorders. Dr. Smith is qualified in a multitude of patient procedures including biliary procedures, colonoscopies and upper endoscopies. Located in the Athens area, he practices at both Athens Regional Medical Center, Barrow County Medical Center, and St. Mary's Hospital.

All of the clinical staff at Athens Gastroenterology Center are dedicated to providing the best patient care possible. To exemplify this goal, the center has an on-call doctor available 24 hours a day to assist in emergencies and urgent medical problems. Their mission is to strive for excellence in patient education and therapy.
